About iGuzzini

Light is technology, but at the same time culture, thoughts, emotions.

iGuzzini was established in 1958 and produces today indoor and outdoor lighting fixtures. It is the Italian leader in technical and architectural lighting and ranks amongst the leading companies in Europe.

The company mission is not limited to the manufacturing of top-quality lighting fixtures: it also means to study and understand light, make the others understand it and improve the integration between light and architecture through industrial design.
